A vampire wedding

Rosetta arrived in a gloomy forest just before sunset. She was fleeing from the castle where a vampire had kidnapped her and wanted to suck her blood or marry her. She was out of breath and she was hungry but she had to run because the vampire ⁽¹⁷⁶⁾ ⁽¹⁷⁷⁾ wanted to go to his castle from one moment to the other. She was really terrified in this gloomy dark forest and the sky was dark too because it was the new moon. She had the impression of being followed. The vampire had kidnapped her the day before her wedding and it was two days she was her prisoner. The cemetery of the curses

Pierre looked for his best friend who disappeared one month ago. But during the search he lost in a dark and strange forest and the night was coming. There were a lot of fog and rain. Pierre heard the thunderstorm roar far off and more he moved forward in the forest, more the fog was thick. And suddenly he saw a light in front of him. In the middle of this forest he discovered something like an out of time cemetery. It was very gloomy and frightened. Pierre was paralyzed by the fear. He had the impression to see some shadows... But Pierre had guts, and he was curious so he went to the cemetery. All the tombstones were monk's tombstones, with strange drawings on. Then he suddenly heard a horrific scream, he turned round and he saw the ghost of his friend... trying to escape, he ran in a trap and he fell in. He didn't know he was near to discover the biggest secret of the human era...

Colocation

The novel (extract):

Gella arrived in front of a gloomy manor just before sunset. She had a shiver of anguish: why did she accept to go and see this manor for a colocation? Her friend offered her to go in this manor to plan a contract with a guy who wanted to have a room-mate. She accepted then, but now had regrets. With apprehension, she started to climb the stairs and arrived in front of the gigantic doors. She pushed the two large pieces of wood and looked around her. There were many stuffed animals, swords and old items. Gella was scared, but continued to walk. She arrived in front of another door, opened it. But, as soon as she was inside the room, the door closed behind her. She saw a guy who lay down on a sofa. He looked dead. She called him, but as she approached to touch him, he was cold. Suddenly, he grabbed her hand and opened his eyes. Gella's scream was that loud that it could be heard miles away. Read on to find out how Gella lived to tell the tale!
